

Understanding the World

Find out more about dinosaurs and where they used to live. You can use the fact books or the internet and bring your new knowledge

Make your own fossils

Research fossils and have a go at making your own.

Dino World

Create a dino world and use your toys to retell or make up past, history, extinct, prehistoric, palaeontologist, bones, fossils, carnivore, herbivore, omnivore, spikes, horns, claws, spines, plates, jaws.

Fab Vocab

Phonics - Continue to rehearse phase 2 sounds and practise blending them to read and segment

Role Play Area

Dinosaur Explorers Den

Festivals, Dinosaurs and Christmas

Nativity Performance

14th and 15th December

Remembrance Day, Bonfire Night, Diwali and Christmas

This half term we will be learning about some of the special events happening around the world over the next few months. Please spend some time talking to your children about these. Allow them to share what they know, share anything you know, including any special family traditions that happens in your

Firework Safety

Spend some time discussing the dangers surrounding Bonfire night and reinforce the best

Diwali Art

Diwali is also called the festival of light and the celebrations involves lots of beautiful bright colours. You could research some ideas and create your own art work. Please share any of this with by sending it into

Wrapping Up for Winter

The drop in temperature this half term means lots of extra clothing to keep us warm. Please encour-

